

PhotoDB

Features and benefits

- Computerized pre-construction survey report generation
- Store and document digital survey photographs in a project based database
- Simple, user friendly interface that can be learned quickly
- Compatible with photographs taken with the digital cameras
- Information on location and conditions may be enter one-by-one or in bulk
- Each photograph may be rotated to fit the report style
- Proven to work with large volume reports (in excess of 1000 photographs)
- Reports consists of annotated photographs and table of descriptions
- Each page may be automatically and quickly formatted to contain 1, 2 or 4 photographs by selecting an option
- Report may be previewed on screen before printing in PDF format
- Significantly simplifies & speeds-up pre-construction survey report production